SPEAKERS

DR. LANCE HAWLEY is Associate Professor of Old Testament at Harding School of Theology (now in Searcy, AR), where he has taught for ten years. Before teaching at HST, he and his wife, Laura, served churches in Madison, WI. His PhD in Hebrew Bible is from the University of Wisconsin, where his studies focused on Wisdom Literature and Hebrew Poetry. He has written books on Job and Proverbs, including Walking with Wisdom: A Study of Proverbs (Biblia Series, Regnum Media, 2024).

DR. RON HIGHFIELD is Professor of Religion at Pepperdine University in Malibu, CA. He teaches classes in Christian Theology and Christianity and Culture and writes short, popular essays on theological topics on his blog, ifaqtheology.wordpress.com ("Infrequently Asked Questions in Theology"). He enjoys running and hiking and is passionate for helping others become as passionate as he is about God. He has authored several books, including The Choice: Should the Church Affirm LGBTQ+ Identities and Ways of Living? (Keledei, 2024).

FAQs

For whom is this seminar designed?

The Northwest Expositor's Seminar is designed especially for preachers and teachers (expositors) in the church, and for all church leaders seeking to grow in knowledge of God's Word and in skills for leading God's people.

What should I bring?

Bring your own bedding, toiletries, Bible, and notebook.

Where can I get more information?

- For the Expositor's Seminar, contact Jay Hawkins (jayhawkins05@gmail.com, 208-899-2651) or Kevin Jensen (509-952-6859).
